America Observes Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Week July 21-27, 2019

Tulsa County, Oklahoma - During the week of July 21-27, 2019, people across the United States and Canada will recognize and celebrate the work that pretrial, probation, parole, and community supervision professionals do to change lives and provide a safer community for all. This year's theme—Restoring Trust, Creating Hope—highlights the positive impacts these professionals can have.

With over 5 million adults on community supervision in America today, pretrial, probation, and parole officers provide 24/7 monitoring and supervisory services. Often, community corrections professionals must find creative solutions to make sure those they supervise have the support needed to find jobs, housing, and treatment. By collaborating with community leaders and volunteering their personal time, many officers make a difference even with expanding caseloads and responsibilities.

Members of our community are encouraged to join together during Pretrial, Probation, and Parole Supervision Week to celebrate the impactful work these officers do every day.
