ELECTION EMERGENCY IMPACTS APRIL 7 ELECTION IN TULSA COUNTY

An election emergency declaration issued by the State Election Board Secretary on March 18 will impact elections scheduled for April 7 in Tulsa County, the County Election Board Secretary confirmed today. The election emergency allowed all entities, including those with statutory school board member elections, to reschedule their April 7 elections to another date allowed by law. The declaration was issued in response to the current COVID-19 health crisis, which has resulted in federal, state, and local restrictions.

County Election Board Secretary Gwen Freeman said the following elections have been postponed and rescheduled for June 30, 2020:

- ISD-1 Tulsa Public Schools Districts 5 and 6
- ISD-6 Collinsville Public Schools Office 5
- ISD-9 Union Public Schools Office 5
- ISD-10 Berryhill Public Schools Office 5
- ISD-10 Berryhill Public Schools has rescinded its Special Propositions Election and will reschedule for a date to be determined later.
- C-15 Keystone Public Schools has also rescinded its Special Propositions election and will reschedule for a date to be determined later.
- City of Jenks has also rescinded its Special Bond Election and will reschedule for a date to be determined later.

Absentee ballots issued for the April 7 election are no longer valid and should be destroyed.

Voters who were issued an absentee ballot for the April 7 election will be issued a new ballot for the June 30 election, if they are currently signed up to receive absentee ballots for all elections in which they are eligible to vote for the 2020 election year.

Voters who applied for an absentee ballot for the April 7 election only, will need to submit a new absentee ballot request for the June 30 election in order to vote in the rescheduled elections. Absentee ballots can be requested online using the OK Voter Portal at <https://www.ok.gov/elections/OVP.html>. Applications can also be downloaded at https://www.ok.gov/elections/Voter_Info/Absentee_Voting/index.html.

While Tulsa County Election Board remains closed to the public, the Tulsa County Election Board will continue to conduct business as usual by phone, email, and mail. Business hours may
