A MESSAGE FROM THE TULSA COUNTY ELECTION BOARD:

The Tulsa County Election Board has received a number of calls from concerned voters who have been contacted on their personal cell phones by political campaigns in advance of the August 25 election. Although some limited voter information is considered public information by law and is available under the Open Records Act, please be aware that phone numbers are not part of the publicly available voter lists maintained by the Election Board and therefore are not released or made available to any private individuals or campaigns for any reason.

If you receive a phone call or text from a candidate or a political campaign and have questions about how they are obtaining personal information such as your phone number, please contact the candidate or their campaign officials to inquire.
